Comment - Virginia cannot afford to turn down the Medicaid expansion dollars. 1. Our federal tax dollars will be going to help Virginians instead of paying for expansion in other states, like Maryland and California, 2. Our hospitals should not be burdened with caring for the 400,000 people left without insurance if Virginia turns the federal money down 3. It will add thousands of well-jobs to our economy 4. Our economy needs the additional tax revenue to continue to ensure the quality of life that means so much to us
