Dear Medicaid Innovation and Reform Commission,

I work in the mental health field. Everyday I see children who have Medicaid. It isn't just the children who need health insurance. It is the parents who need it to stay healthy so the can earn a living to provide for their children. I have known a man to elect to die from the terminal cancer he had because he didn't have health insurance. With expanded Medicaid, he might have lived.

Janan Hurst, LCSW

Sincerely,

Janan Hurst
