Comment - As a person of faith, I cannot understand why Virginia, one of the 10 wealthiest state in the nation [REDACTED] would not expand Medicaid. Something is deeply disturbing to me if we don't do so. In the second poorest country in the Western Hemisphere, Nicaragua, in the mountains in a village with no paved streets, our U.S. citizens, helping families build more fuel-efficient stoves-- were taken care of FOR FREE at their public health center: one with an eye problem; the other needing stitches. I urge Virginia to expand Medicaid.
