Dear Medicaid Innovation and Reform Commission,

Expansion would be one of the best ways to keep Virginian's out of poverty. I am not fooled by the notion that there is this class of free loaders in Virginia. There will always be cheaters and they should feel the pain they inflict on others when they steal. But the working poor make up the vast numbers. That's right WORKING poor. I have healthcare and pay for it.

I still have not figured out how greed is good nor how anyone made it on their own in this state, since Virginia is not an island inhabited by one person.

Sincerely,

Thomas Gannon
