Comment - Virginians pay almost $44 billion in federal income taxes alone. If Virginia does not participate in Medicaid expansion, that money will be used to pay for Medicaid expansion in other states. Medicaid expansion will cover 400,000 uninsured Virginians and relieve hospitals from providing millions of dollars in uncompensated care. It is estimated Medicaid expansion will also create about 30,000 new jobs in Virginia. Medicaid expansion makes sense for Virginia in human and economic terms.
