Dear Medicaid Innovation and Reform Commission,

With the Federal Government picking up the lion's share of the cost of the expansion (100%) initially, and many low income Virginians in need, it is unfair to withhold this vital expansion from those whose very lives may depend upon it! Even a Governor as radical as Jan Brewer in Arizona opted for the expansion. Virginia is a purple trending blue state. Her government needs to respond to that electorate....not the Tea Party minority!!!!!!

Sincerely,

Deborah Turner
