Comment - McDonnell and Cuccinelli should stop blocking 30,000 health care industry jobs to serve 400,000 working poor under the Affordable Care Act. This program creates Virginia jobs and provides health care for Virginia's working poor. When you meet Saint Peter at the gates of heaven; will he care more about your republican dogma, or whether you helped the poor? You can be both a better Governor and a better Christian, by helping the poor get healthcare.
