Virginia Medicaid Innovation and Reform Commission
VA

Dear Medicaid Innovation and Reform Commission,

It is undemocratic and "unchristian" to make life harder for those at the bottom of the economic pile. Without health, people cannot even try to work. Virginia should not be among the states that punishes people for being poor, making it harder for them to raise themselves out of poverty, by denying them health care--which, along with education, is a "right" in a democracy.

Sincerely,

Eva Klein
