Dear Medicaid Innovation and Reform Commission,

It's time the US got instep with the rest of the industrialized world. A healthy educated population is good for the country. How do we sustain our "uniqueness" if 40% of the population is in serious need? Where is the logic in NOT providing necessary health care? What is the alternative to NOT providing the expanded health care program? What does it say about the kind of people Americans are if we do NOT expand health care for the less privileged? Health care for all citizens is crucial for the survival of America. Evelyn McBride

Sincerely,

Evelyn McBride
