Comment - I'd like to add my voice to those requesting support for the Affordable Care Act. it's at least a start to making health care coverage actually cover the folks who need it most. And if the Act isn't perfect out of the box (that's supposed to be sarcastic, by the way) then it can be tweaked with experience. Those of us in the middle and lower classes--many of whom have no, or poor insurance, need something. Please advocate for us.
