Dear Medicaid Innovation and Reform Commission,

Please let us take care of our needy citizens. It is immoral to have the resources that we have not to help our neighbors. Why does Virginia preach the evils of abortion but refuses to aid those that are sick and in poverty? That is true evil - not helping those that are here in order for some to keep more income. What is the real message that the capitol of the Confederacy continues to espouse? By making people desperate, society only becomes weak. We will all remain as weak as our weakest link. Please assist our citizens to be strong and healthy. It is our first commandment.

Sincerely,

Kathleen Longava
