Comment - When my mom was getting older, one of my sisters needed money to get something. So she went to mom. All the other siblings were mad at her because she was taking money from someone who didn't have much and needed every penny. Similarly, the US is busted. Broke. 17 Trillion dollars broke. We shouldn't be going to the Federal government to ask them for money, even if the leadership wants to give the money away. It's wrong. Its abusing the US. It's dishonest.
