Virginia Medicaid Innovation and Reform Commission
VA

Dear Medicaid Innovation and Reform Commission,

The Commonwealth of VA is very short sighted if it refuses to expand Medicaid. If these people who consist mainly of elderly and children do not receive this coverage , the taxpayers will incur more costs with regard to higher health insurance costs passed on to us who are insured. There is the likelihood that some of these children will experience poor school performance as a result of their health care needs not being met. Poor school performance will invariably lead to their facing a life of poverty and potentially crime.

Sincerely,

Linda Rice
