Dear Medicaid Innovation and Reform Commission,

As Howard Thurman said, "you cannot be happy in heaven if you have to leave your brother in hell." In this case we have the chance to bring 400,000 Virginians into better lives for very little cost to the Commonwealth. What else is left to figure out here? Are we going to leave 400,000 Virginians in hell just so some of us can feel self righteous?

Sincerely,

Michael Cash
