I support Medicaid expansion. Low income Virginians and their children need access to healthcare. Access to health care for adults improves the economy by cutting down lost hours due to illness and future increased costs associated with advanced, untreated ailments.

Healthy children do better in school and do not spread illness. Children who are absent frequently fall further behind in learning.

It is the shame of this country and state that not everyone has access to affordable health care. Expansion of Medicaid is one step in joining the rest of the world in providing health care for all.
