VA

Dear Medicaid Innovation and Reform Commission,

I adopted three children who were on Medicaid prior to the adoption when I was their legal guardian. I realize that some people use Medicaid and Medicare in a fraudulent manner, but you should work on fixing that and not throwing out the baby with the bathwater. With our economy struggling to pull out of a recession, there are far more people in Virginia and in America who need that extra boost to maintain a survival lifestyle. Therefore, we need to expand our services to the public and not cut back when they need help the most.

Sincerely,

Olivia Zorumski
