Dear Medicaid Innovation and Reform Commission,

To deny healthcare to 400,000 Virginians is inhumane, demeaning and foolish. A society is judged by how it treats the most vulnerable -- the elderly, children, and the poor. It makes much more economic sense to ensure everyone, than to treat the uninsured in an Emergency Room. I certainly hope that we have not reached the point where we have so little compassion as to let the uninsured die or go untreated for lack of money or insurance! Please support expanding Medicaid.

Sincerely,

Opal Stroup
