Virginia Medicaid Innovation and Reform Commission
VA

Dear Medicaid Innovation and Reform Commission,

As a social worker in Virginia, I know people who cut their medications in half in order to get through the month. These are people who rely on Medicare and Medicaid. As seniors they do not have the option of returning to work. Medical care is a human right. The U.S. attitude is that health care is only for those who deserve it. I thought death panels died with Sarah Palin's candidacy. Do the right thing and stop blocking Obamacare. It is the first step on the path to universal health coverage which is the course of all civilized countries.

Sincerely,

Pamela Harms
