Virginia Medicaid Innovation and Reform Commission
VA

Dear Medicaid Innovation and Reform Commission,

Virginia has thousands of people who are self-employed and cannot afford health care for their families. These people are a vital part of the state's economy. I'm talking about people who mow yards, who clean houses, hairdressers, gardeners, farmers, small businesses, and on and on. They deserve to have health care for themselves and their families. A single serious illness of one family member can wreck their lives, cause the loss of their home (or rental apartment), or render them unable to work. We have the opportunity to give them a safety net like we the insured have. Please do not leave them out.

Sincerely,
Rachel Keen

Sincerely,

Rachel Keen
