Comment - You, the MIRC legislators, should not have been put in a position where you have to make a decision based upon very iffy funding from a Federal government known to promise much but deliver little, but that's where you are. In the case of expanded Medicaid enrollment in Virginia, the people I talk to have no faith that the promised funding will ever materialize. The old saying is to never buy a pig in a poke; in my opinion, this is one huge poke and even a fatter pig. Please do not report out favorably to the Governor on this monstrosity. Very truly yours, Richard D Smith [REDACTED] Arlington VA 22207
